The Presidential Train

Nashville, Oct. 18.—The Duke of Marlborough, the Duchess of Marlborough and party were the guests of honor at a reception tendered them by the Ladies' Hermitage Association at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Donelson, this afternoon. Mrs. Donelson was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Gen. Bate, Mrs. Gen. Cheatham, Mrs. Gen. Jackson, Mrs. Gen. Gordon and Mrs. Gen. Maney. Mrs. Donelson's parlors were handsomely decorated with flowers, and the guests were received in the dining room, which was also handsomely decorated with flowers. Refreshments were served. The guests were ushered in the following order: Mrs. Gen. Bate and the Duke of Marlborough, Mrs. Gen. Cheatham and Mr. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Gen. Jackson and Mr. Gould, Mrs. Gen. Gordon and Mr. Depew, Mrs. Gen. Maney and Mr. Whitney. The ushers of the reception were Gen. Bate, Gen. Cheatham, Gen. Jackson, Gen. Gordon and Gen. Maney. After the reception for the president Mrs. Donelson gave a reception for the ladies of the party. The reception was held in the handsome parlors of the Maxwell House, and was attended by a large number of ladies. Mrs. Donelson received standing in the center of the parlors, and was assisted Regular Meeting of the City Council Last Evening.

Ordinance Vacating a Portion of Cheyenne Avenue Introduced.

An Ordinance Vacating Portions of Certain Streets and Alleys

In the Denver and Colorado Fuel Railway Postal Stations Etc.

[illegible]

Attached to the petition was the following

All of the above and foregoing are either residents or property owners or both, on the west side of the Monument. The are light being an urgent necessity, if the present application is not granted I agree to pay the expense which a new appropriation be made, provided the same be then refunded to me.

M. L. De Courcey

Alderman Skinner moved that the portion of the petition relating to the arc lights be referred to the committee on public grounds, and that laws the petition relating to the Cheyenne Avenue and Bijou Street crossing and the proposition of Mr. De Courcey be laid on the table. The motion was carried.

Alderman Perry from the committee on ordinances and printing introduced an ordinance, which was read, entitled an ordinance [illegible] and granting the use thereof to the Denver & Santa Fe Railroad company. The ordinance is almost identically the same as that rejected by the council at the previous regular meeting. On motion of Alderman Hinchcliff the rules were suspended and the ordinance was adopted by the following vote: Ayes—Skinner, Lawton, Perry Hinchcliff, Stillman, Allsopp—Wilder, Calloway, Wood, Voss.

The ordinance will be printed [illegible] in our issue of to-morrow morning.

The following ordinance drawn by the city attorney was introduced:

An ordinance vacating a portion of [illegible] avenue, [illegible] and [illegible] thereof.

Be it ordained by the city council of the city Colorado Springs:

That twenty feet in width on each side of Cheyenne avenue, [illegible] in this city be and the same is hereby vacated so that said avenue shall thereafter be and remain of the width of one hundred feet. The said avenue is vacated under the rules.

The following ordinance was introduced by the committee on [illegible] and printing:

An ordinance amending an ordinance entitled an ordinance regulating [illegible] walks.

Be it ordained by the city council of the city of Colorado Springs:

That an ordinance entitled [illegible] concerning sidewalks, passed [illegible] be and the same is hereby amended by adding the following sections:

Sec. 17. Any person who shall ride a bicycle on any sidewalk in the city or on any walk in the public parks of this city, shall on conviction thereof be fined in a sum not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars for each offense.

Sec. 18. Any person who shall ride, drive or lead any horse or other work animal or other attached to any vehicle or otherwise on any sidewalk in this city except in necessarily crossing such sidewalk, and any person who shall carelessly [illegible] horse or other work animal or any vehicle of any kind to stand on any street crossing in this city in such way as to hinder free passage on said crossing shall on conviction thereof be fined in a sum not less than five dollars nor more than twenty five dollars for each offense.

The ordinance was laid over under the rules.

The following bills were audited and allowed:
